THE LONDON BOOK SOCIETY,

IN CONNECTION WITH

Mudie's Select Library.

THIS Department of MUDIE'S LIBRARY is suited to the convenience of those Subscribers who require an early perusal of all the best New Works, but who reside at too great a distance from the Library to avail themselves sufficiently of its resources. It provides for such Subscribers the following advantages:—

I. A regular and frequent succession of such books (English and Foreign) as the Subscriber may select from the Library Catalogue.

II. The books are exchanged weekly, without cost, trouble, or disappointment, in every part of London and its neighbourhood.

III. No Subscriber need wait long for any recent work of acknowledged merit or general interest, as fresh copies are placed in circulation whenever a delay occurs.

IV. Subscribers are entitled to enter their names for duplicate copies of newly-published books at half price, to be reserved for them at the expiration of one year.
